

National Institute of Cardiology Ignacio Chávez, Mexico City
Commitment to Action

The National Institute of Cardiology Ignacio Chávez, Mexico City is pleased to announce their support of the Patient Safety Movement Foundation (PSMF) and mission to eliminate preventable deaths by 2020 (OX2020).

Being the first class in the word, the Institute as founded in 1944. Since then, it keeps an integral vision of the modern cardiology. It is a medical center for the care of the poorest population, a large research laboratory for both basic a clinical sciences, and training center ranging from the basic undergraduate medical student to the highly specialized philosophy and technical train for the postgraduate.

The commitment of the Institute is to provide medical assistance to the segment of the population lacking social security services, offering state of the art technology that otherwise would be inaccessible to them. In addition, it develops cutting edge research and stands as a highly recognized educational center for cardiology and related sciences. The accomplishment of this mission is the instrument of social assistance that strives for the treatment, prevention and rehabilitation of the diseased.

As a committed organization, the Institute will demonstrate alliance with PSMF by the following:

1. Spread the mission of OX2020 to Institute members
2. Annually disseminate Actionable Patient Safety Solution (APSS) to members.
3. Ask members who work in hospitals to implement APSS, or share their own successful processes, to eliminate preventable deaths. And, make their own commitments to action to the Patient Safety Movement Foundation.

We at the National Institute of Cardiology are excited to announce this commitment and plan to attend the 5th Annual World Patient Safety, Science & Technology Summit, Feb 3-4, 2017 in Dana Point, CA to formally, and for the first time publically, announce our commitment to improve patient safety.
